

Applying for Membership

Your interest in joining St. Fillans Golf Club is noted and appreciated. The following notes are given for your information and to help you achieve Membership as quickly as possible. Our Constitution permits categories of Membership as defined overleaf. Please consider these in detail before settling on the one appropriate for you.

All applications for Membership must be made on the form overleaf and submitted to the Secretary at the Clubhouse for presentation to the Council which has sole discretion in awarding Membership in any category. They must be proposed and seconded by Members of at least 2 years standing who know the applicant.

Our Manager will be pleased to introduce you to Members if you have recently come to the area. The Club year runs from 1st January to 31st December. Renewal of subscriptions is in January, within 30 days of the fees being announced following the AGM in that month.

CURRENT CHARGES ARE:-

1 half price

Categories of Membership

FULL MEMBERSHIP is open to all Ladies and Gents and allows full playing rights, membership of the CONGU handicap system and voting rights.

COUNTRY MEMBERSHIP is available to those residing in excess of 50 miles from the golf club and not having a second home or caravan within that area.

STUDENT MEMBERSHIP is available to 18-24yr/olds in full time education.

JUNIOR MEMBERSHIP is for all young people over 8 and under 18 years of age on the first day of April during a Club year.

NON-PLAYING MEMBERSHIP is for anyone who wants an association with the Club but does not want to play golf.

In addition to the above there is a sub-category of SENIOR which applies all members in the Club year following their 80th birthday.

The rules of the Club are embodied in our Constitution, a copy of which can be inspected in the Clubhouse.

We look forward to receiving your application (overleaf) in due course.
